Thanksgiving and Gratitude

This weekend at the 9.30am OLR Mass, I will be officially installed as Parish Priest by Bishop Tim Norton. While I have been performing this role since December last year, and leading the parish as Administrator since August 2022, it is a privilege to participate with you in this important occasion.

Thanksgiving and gratitude are things I both give and experience at this time: to Archbishop Mark, Bishop Tim, and the College of Consultors for their confidence in appointing me to Our Lady of the Rosary Catholic Parish. I offer thanksgiving and gratitude too, to those who were able to contribute to the gift of two new chasubles (green and white), and to those who support me as a young leader and hold me in your prayers – as I do for every person in our parish. Never would I have imagined that I would be asked to lead a large and diverse parish such as ours as a five-and-a-half-year-old priest, as it were! Thank you, too, for your confidence in the skills, gifts and talents God has given me – particularly in the areas of leadership and preaching – and which I do not take for granted. What we have achieved together over the last 26 months, since August 2022, is nothing short of miraculous.

In that relatively short time, we have developed and implemented a five-year Strategic Plan which has included the raising up of approximately 30 new lay leaders in the parish. We have significantly increased our sacrificial giving to the point that we were able to hire a full time Mission Coordinator in Beth Davies, and we have commenced the necessary culture change to measure everything we do against our Mission: to be a vibrant community that actively accompanies people to encounter Jesus.

There is no doubt that we are living in changing times. Last week I announced that as of January next year we will lose one of our priests, Fr Francis, who will not be replaced. Unfortunately, the Archdiocese has discerned that attendance in our Mass communities does not justify retaining our current number of associate pastors. This week, however, I invite us to concentrate on celebrating continuity in our parish with my installation. While not everyone will be able to gather at the 9.30am OLR Mass for the official installation, I see this weekend as a celebration for the entire parish. Next week, I will commence outlining the ways in which you will be invited to participate in a thorough and robust consultation process to address our 2025 reality. In the meantime, please join me in celebrating and giving thanks to God for all that the Holy Spirit is doing in and through our parish.

Peace and blessing, Fr Josh

The Parish Worship Committee

Within the Mass there are four distinct segments that together make up the reason we attend every Sunday, but do you recognise them, do you understand why the Mass has developed this way, and how do you respond to them?

Beginning in November the priests of the Parish will undertake to explain one of these sections of the Mass, why it is there the way it is, what it means to us as Catholics and how should we respond to the entreaty that each section represents in the life of being Catholic.

Our Parish's Mission is to be a vibrant community that actively accompanies people to encounter Jesus.

So, over the weekend of the 2-3 November, the 31st Sunday in Ordinary Time and beginning at the end of the Mass, the Dismissal will be first addressed. Why are the exhortations of the priest and the people made the way they are and what and how should we respond to that call made of us?

The other sections of the Mass, The Introductory Rites, the very important Liturgy of the Word and the equally important, Preparation of the Gifts, the Eucharistic Prayer, and Communion, will be explained. Why do we say the things we do, why do we variously stand, sit, and kneel throughout the Mass.

How important is it that we understand and recognise these very important rites of passage through the life of Our Lord and seen in the celebration of Mass. What makes Catholic Mass stand apart from our Christian brethren?

Masses for All Saints' Day and All Souls' Day

This Friday, November 1st, is the feast of All Saints and the following day is All Souls – two very important annual occasions that remind us of our mortality and the purpose of our own lives; they cause us to reflect upon and pray for those who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith.

- Our Mass times on All Saints' Day are: OLR Caloundra & OLW Landsborough 9am
- Our Mass times for All Souls' Day is: Caloundra 9am

This weekend at the entrance to all our churches you will discover our parish BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE and you are invited to inscribe on the pages the names of your loved ones and friends who have gone before you. As a faith community we will remember them and pray for them in our November Masses. May their souls, and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the rich mercy of God, rest in peace
