About Fr Gregory

Fr. Gregory Woodward, LC is originally from Brisbane, Australia and is a priest in the congregation of the Legionaries of Christ. Ordained in Rome on 1st January 2000, he has been continually been assigned to chaplaincy in schools run by the Regnum Christi Federation.

He was the assistant chaplain of Overbrook Academy and the Immaculate Conception Academy, two Regnum Christi all-girls' in Rhode Island, USA, from 2000-2010. He served from 2010-2012 as the parochial vicar of the National Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe, a Hispanic parish in Sacramento, California.

From 2012 till the present day he has worked in parishes, schools, and universities in the Diocese of Cancun-Chetumal in Quintana Roo, Mexico. Fr. Gregory is currently working in Cancun, Quintana Roo as the parochial vicar of the Parish of the Immaculate Conception of Mary, the chaplain of the inter-latino university UNID, and chaplain of the Helping Hand school run by Regnum Christi. Although very far from Australia, he continues to be an avid fan of Australian rules football and cricket.
